

Monday, 18th – Friday, 22nd August
Welcome to our first full week of learning and fun
this school year!

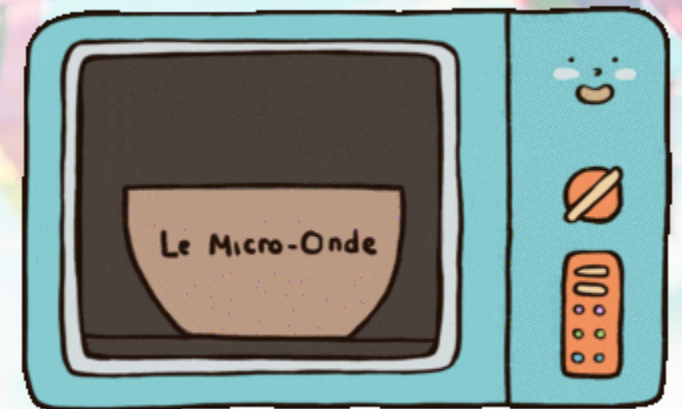

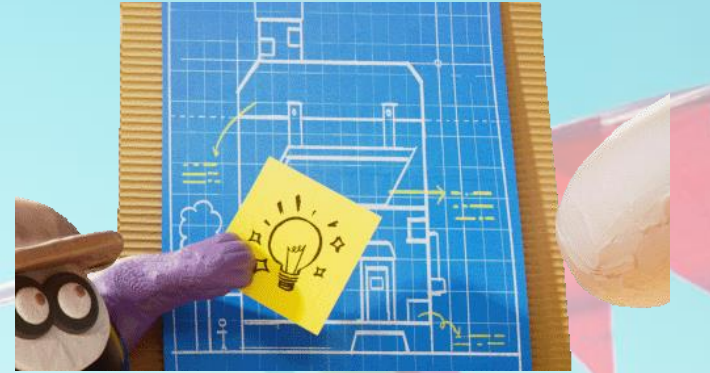

Have fun with “DREAM About Festival” – What are you learning??

Monday, 18th August is Serendipity Day

- Serendipity is a great word! It might even be a new word for you.
- It means something unexpected that brings about a good result – a happy accident!
- Penicillin, Post-Its and Microwaves were all discovered by accident!

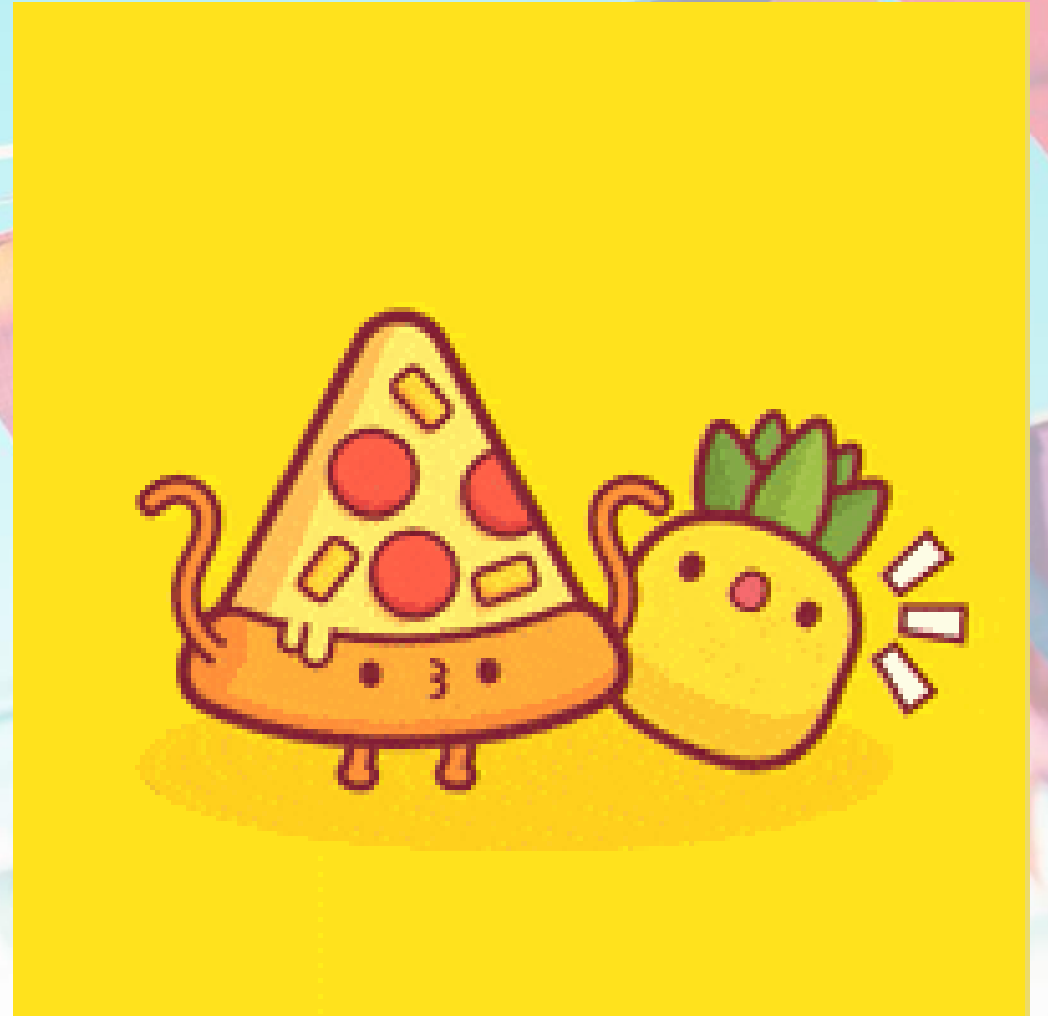

Tuesday, 19th August is World Photography Day

- Why not go out and snap a few pictures today?
- Make a collage!
- Perhaps take some photos of your DREAM learning to document your progress?

Wednesday, 20th August is International Hawaiian Pizza Day

- Do you like pizza?
- If your favourite toppings are ham, pineapple and cheese, this is the day for you!!

Thursday, 21st August is Poet's Day

Chippy is composing a poem for you.

- Poetry is a special way to express ideas or emotions.
- Today is the day to learn about some of the famous poets and their poetry...
- Or write your own!

Friday, 22nd August is World Plant Milk Day

Plant milk offers an alternative to dairy. If you haven't tried any, today is the day!

Here are some of the favourites:

- Almond Milk – Great for many people, except those with tree nut allergies.
- Oat Milk – Close to the consistency of cow's milk and more sustainable
- Soy Milk – Original alternative to dairy.

Next week... LAGGANLIA!

- P7s, have fun getting ready for CAMP!!

Going Away
to Camp

Have a lovely weekend!
