

Another week of learning and fun at Blackhall!

Monday, 12th – Friday, 16th January

Monday, 12th January is National Clean Your Desk Day

- What a great way to start the week!
- And if yours is already clean, come and have a crack at Mrs Martin's..!!
- Thanks!

Tuesday, 13th January

- P5F pupils are off to their final swimming session this morning.
- Enjoy!

Wednesday, 14th January is World Logic Day

- Logic is the study of correct reasoning.
- Try a logic puzzle or board game – like Chess!
- Exercise your brain's logical powers.

Wednesday, 14th January

- Blackhall Parent Carer Council Meeting tonight!
- All Parents and Carers welcome!

Thursday, 15th January is Martin Luther King Day

- Martin Luther King Jr. was an American Baptist minister, activist, and political philosopher.
- He was one of the most prominent leaders in the civil rights movement from 1955 until his assassination in 1968.
- What else can you find out about MLK today?

Thursday, 15th January

Pupil Council Meeting today.
Let's see what 2026
can bring!

Friday, 16th January is International Hot and Spicy Food Day

- People have been using hot spices in their recipes for more than 6,000 years.
- There are so many different types of spices that are used to create hot and spicy foods today.
- Today is all about celebrating these spices.
- What is your favourite kind of spicy food?

Have a lovely weekend!

happy winter!

We'll see you back at school on Monday!