- It's your turn to talk to Mrs Martin or Mrs Hazel-Dunn about your writing.

Chinese New Year 2026

17th February – 3rd March

- The Chinese New Year is based on the lunar calendar.
- In the lunar calendar, each month begins with the new moon.
- This is why the Chinese New Year begins on a different date each year.

Monday, 23rd February is Curling is Cool Day

- Have you been watching the Winter Olympics?
- Britain's Men's Team just missed out on the gold medal for curling.
- All curling stones are made from Ailsa Craig island in Ayrshire.

Tuesday, 24th February is International I Hate Coriander Day

What foods do you like and dislike?

It would seem that some people love Coriander and some hate the little green herb.

How do you feel about it?

Today is the day to avoid it – even if you like it!

17th February – 3rd March

- Did you know that you shouldn't clean during the Chinese New Year Festival?
- It is thought you may sweep or throw away good luck!

Wednesday, 25th February is Let's All Eat Right Day

- Good nutrition plays a vital role in our overall health and well being.
- Let's think about what we eat and how it helps to keep us well.

Thursday, 26th February is National Tell a Fairy Tale Day

A fairy tale is a story that has a magical element to it.

What is your favourite fairy tale?

Perhaps you could write your own today?

Chinese New Year 2026 17th February – 3rd March

- 8 is the luckiest number in Chinese culture.
- You don't want to give anyone anything related to the number 4 as it is considered extremely unlucky!

Friday, 27th February is International Polar Bear Day

- What do you know about Polar Bears?
- Why are there fewer polar bears on the planet?
- What can we do to protect these amazing animals?

Chinese New Year 2026

17th February – 3rd March

- This is the year of the Fire Horse.
- It is the first time in 60 years that the horse has been paired with the fire sign.
- This year will bring movement, decisiveness and independence.

Friday, 27th February is National Pink Day!

This is also called “Anti-Bullying Day”.

Be the one who stands up for kindness and respect. Together, we can make a difference and create a world without bullying.

KINDNESS

Friday, 27th February Chinese New Year Assembly

- Let's all get together and celebrate this Year of the Fire Horse!
- We have some special visitors to help.

(Sunday) 1st March is St David's Day!

- St David is the patron saint of Wales.
- St David was wise and people sought his guidance.
- Legend has it that he survived on only leeks and water...

Enjoy the last Weekend in February!

It's the WEEKEND! ❤️

See you on Monday!
