

Another week of learning and fun at Blackhall!

Monday, 26th – Friday, 30th January

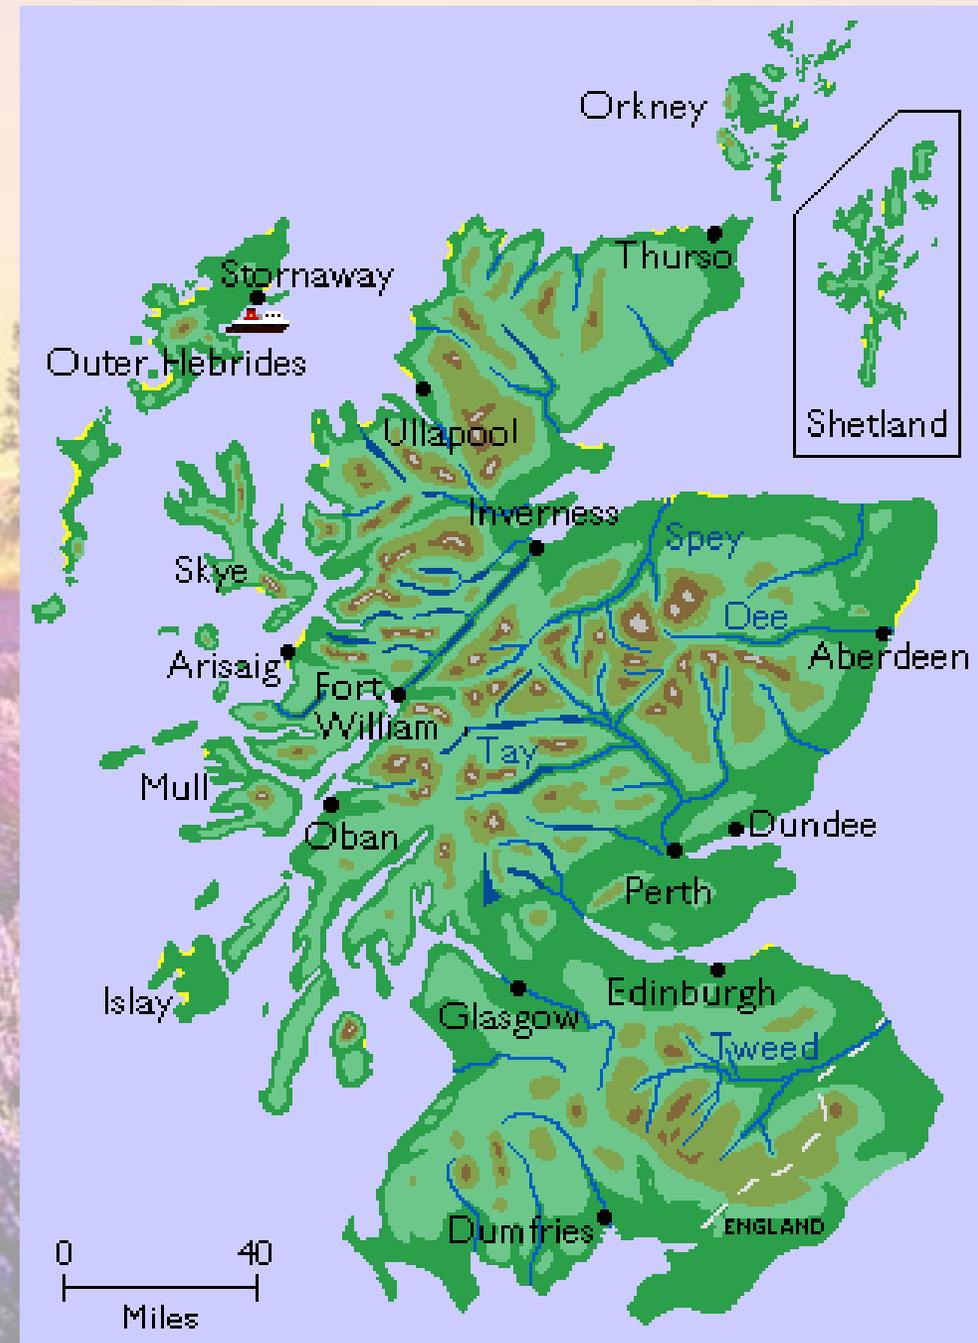

Welcome to Mr Colley who is joining us in P4B this week.

Let's show him our Blackhall values in action!

Monday, 26th January is Dundee Day

- Dundee was granted City Status by Queen Victoria on January 26th 1889, making it the first place in Scotland to be called a city!
- Happy 137th Birthday, Dundee!
- What can you find out about Dundee today?

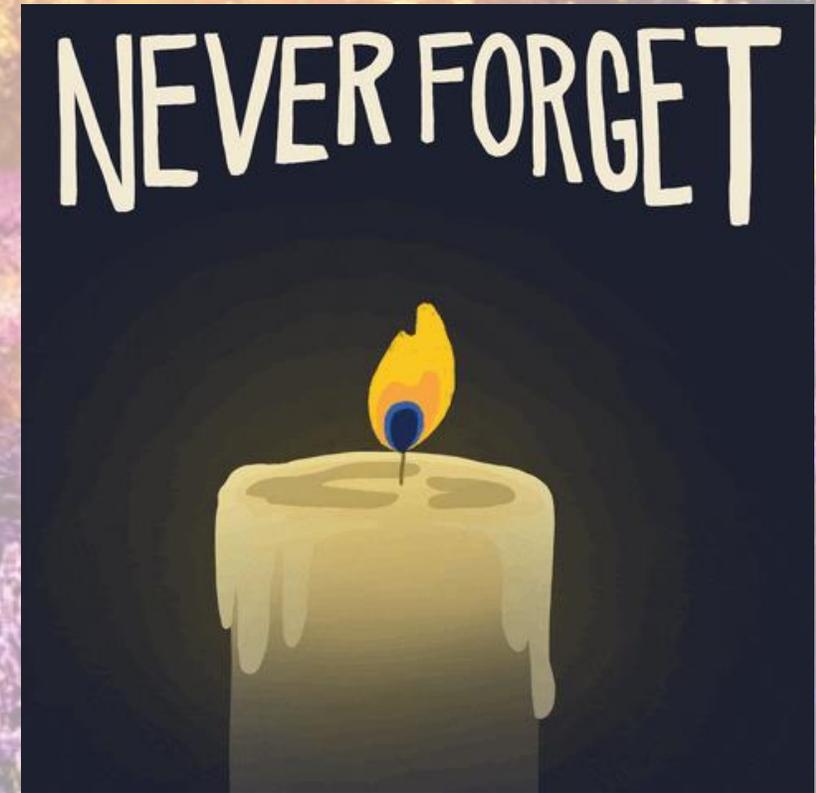

Monday, 26th January

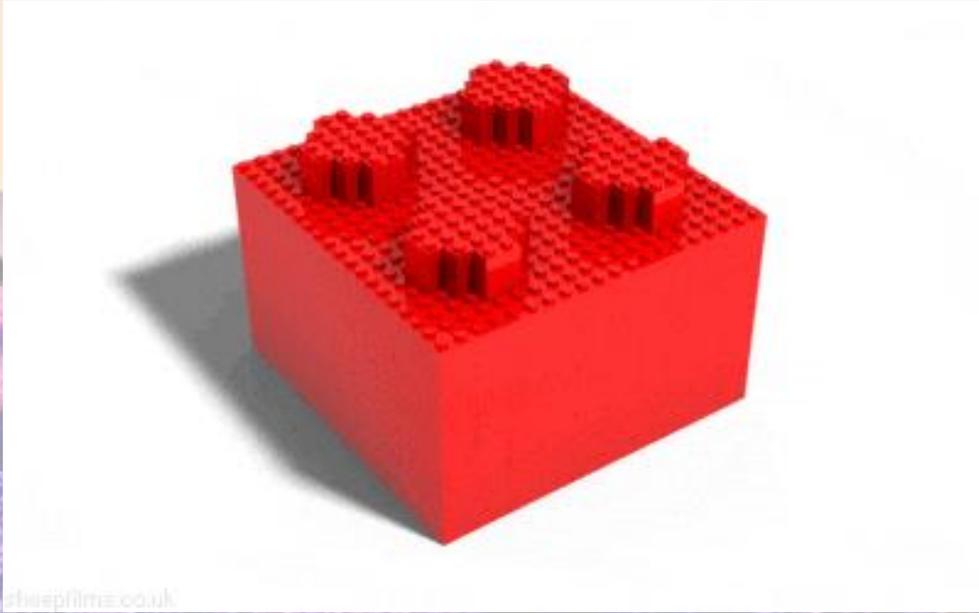

- Ms Fey and Ms Rae are taking the P6 Netball Team to Meadowbank this morning for their first big competition!
- Good luck and thank you to the parents who are driving and supporting!

Tuesday, 27th January is International Holocaust Remembrance Day

- The Holocaust is a complex and tragic event that is important to understand and remember.
- The Holocaust was the result of hatred and discrimination that led to the persecution and murder of millions of people.
- You can educate yourself and others by reading books or watching documentaries.
- Let's make sure this never happens again.

Wednesday, 28th January is International Lego Day

- LEGO bricks began as “Automatic Binding Bricks” in 1949. The term “LEGO” came later, inspired by the Danish words “leg godt,” meaning “play well.”
- LEGO is now recognized as the World’s Most Powerful Brand, towering over Google, Nike, and Ferrari to claim the top spot in 2017.

Wednesday, 28th January

- Running Club at lunchtime today!

Thursday, 29th January is Freethinkers Day

IF YOU'RE THINKING
LIKE EVERYONE
ELSE, THEN
YOU AREN'T
THINKING.

www.marcandangel.com

- At Blackhall, we want you all to be freethinkers.
- Form your own opinions, based on what you have learned.
- Your minds are your own. Use them well.

Friday, 30th January is National Draw a Dinosaur Day

- What's your favourite dinosaur to draw?
- Long necked Brontosaurus?
- Spiky backed Stegosaurus?
- Short-armed Tyrannosaurus?
- Have a go today!

Friday, 30th January

- Viola today!
- Well done, if you remembered your instrument.
- (Especially well done, if you have remembered to practise!!)

Have a lovely weekend!

We'll see you back at school on Monday!
